

INTEGRATED MOUNTAIN INITIATIVE (IMI)

Position: Executive Director (ED)

Location: New Delhi, India

Reporting: Governing Council (GC) through Secretary of the Society, IMI

About IMI:

Conceptualised as a platform for individuals and institutions to redefine the architecture of sustainable development in the Indian Himalayan Region (IHR), the Initiative brings all stakeholders together for understanding the issues holistically, providing policy advocacy and enabling people to realize the potential through integration of knowledge and experiences of multiple stakeholders. IMI enables knowledge sharing, experiential learning and consensus building among communities, change-makers, academics and policy makers to enable development action.

IMI is looking for bright and committed individuals to build the organisation and enhance its outreach to achieve its vision of ‘Making people of India proud of our Mountains’.

Job Summary

ED is the key person, providing leadership to the institution and supporting GC in delivering on the vision and values through the strategic plans which he/she helps develop. ED will be responsible for the overall planning, organizing, staffing, and leadership of all programmes/activities of IMI, with meaningful engagement of stakeholders and partners.

Job Specification

Experience	Minimum 10 years. Leadership experience in a well-known NGO, social enterprise or academic institution in India or internationally.
Exposure	Essential: Issues of mountains through field operations, research or policy interventions including in sustainable development and climate change Desirable: Multilateral or funding organisation,
Educational Qualifications	Masters in Social Sciences, Ph.D., MBA and/or B.Tech. from any premier institution in India or abroad
Competencies	While the position seeks range of competencies, possessing the following is critical: a. Leadership in a complex non-hierarchical organisation b. Entrepreneurship and performance orientation c. Strategic and systems thinking approach d. Decision making and problem solving e. High intellectual capability f. Coping, Tolerance for ambiguity & unstructured situations g. Networking and building relationships

Remuneration	Remuneration will be commensurate with the profile of the candidate in line with norms in the development sector
Other desirables	Passionate about the mountain issues and having lived and worked in the mountains. Willing to travel extensively to field locations across Himalayan Mountain states.
Age	Between 32 to 45 years as of March 31, 2017 & willing to steer the IMI for a period of at least 5 years

To Apply: Kindly send your detailed CV along with a covering letter mentioning your last drawn salary to the representative from IMI Contacting you, with a copy to progcoordinator@inmi.in. Please specify the job title for in the subject line of your mail. IMI Secretariat will revert to you with the next steps after that.

Last date for receiving application is 15th April, 2018

To know more about IMI: www.inmi.in